Two of the most beautifully arranged show windows in the city are at Messrs. J.
L. & W. H. Waggoner's. It needs but a glance to discover that the deft fingers of Sam Johnson executed the work.

The alarm of fire Wednesday morning was occasioned by the burning of some shavings, which accidentally took fire in the shaving room of Messrs. Rodman & Sneed's mill. The flames were extinguished before any great damage was done.

FOR RENT.—A new frame cottage, with five rooms in it, well located in South Frankfort. There is a cistern full of splendid water on the place and all necessary out buildings. Apply to A. K. Stephens, at the Gas Works, or N. F. Richardson.

The Gas Company are getting new customers every day. Mr. Joe LeCompt is the first merchant on the South Side to take it into his establishment, but a number of merchants on the North Side, who had substituted coal oil for gas, have had it turned into their pipes again.

The many friends of Mr. John C. Russell, formerly of this county, but now of Louisville, will regret to learn of the death of his wife, which occurred on Wednesday at 12 o'clock. They had been married not quite a year, and her sudden death was a great shock to a large circle of friends and relatives. She left an infant three or four weeks old.

During the Cincinnati Dramatic Festival, which begins April 30 and continues until May 5th, the L. & N. Railroad will sell excursion tickets at reduced rates between this city and Cincinnati. The railroad has gotten out a handsome programme of the festival, which offers great inducements to lovers of the play to visit Cincinnati during the Festival.

George Booker, a convict in the Penitentiary, fell dead in that institution Tuesday evening about 7 o'clock. A post mortem examination was held Wednesday morning, and revealed the fact that his death was caused by heart disease. He was sent from Jefferson county, was a trusty, and had been a servant for Deputy Warden Hathaway, whose death occurred a few hours before in Owensboro.

"Rhoda, the Herodian Mystery," is the style of a curiosity now on exhibition in the room at the corner of St. Clair and Broadway, lately occupied by Cheap John.
It is the head of a woman, apparently without any body, which rests upon three parallel bars, entirely cut off from everything below, which talks, laughs, moves, and blows out lights, showing that it is the head of a living being, but how the body is concealed is the mystery. It only costs ten cents to see it.

Miss Dora Huffman, of this city, and Mr.
Roland Denson, of Louisville, were quietly married Wednesday afternoon, at the residence of the bride's uncle, Mr. George Huffman, in South Frankfort, Rev. Dr. J.
M. Lewis officiating. The happy young couple left on the 2-27 train for their future home in Louisville, where they will go immediately to housekeeping, the groom having wisely prepared a nest for his bird. The bride is a young lady in every way fitted to take charge of it, and being a true woman, will make a good wife.

ters to be a sure cure for dyspepsia." minstrels have given one or two of their entertainments in this city this week.

daughter of Mr. Sam. Bradley, formerly of Dr. Lacy Hughes, who has been practicing dentistry in this city for the past year, has given up the business and removed to St. Louis to reside, where he will go into some other business.

Messrs. W. S. Kent & Son, of Clayville, Shelby county, who were recently burned out at that place, were in the city the first of the week looking out for a store-room in which to open a grocery.

The City Council met on Thursday night to examine plans and specifications for the new Opera House. After some discussion all the plans submitted were referred to a committee with instructions to report at an adjourned meeting to be held on Monday evening.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Church will give a parlor concert for the benefit of the Church at the residence of Mr. E. L.
Samuel one evening next week. The entertainments of the kind heretofore given by them have always been of the most entertaining character, and the announcement of their intention to give another will be greeted with pleasure by our citizens.

The Openings.

Thursday was a great day for the ladies.
Although the weather was threatening early in the morning, the sun came out bright about nine o'clock, and the ladies began to make their appearance on the street and wend their way down town, where the great Arcade opening was the attraction. Even if they did not want to buy they felt repaid for their walk just to get a chance to look at the many pretty things they saw. The dress goods were beautifully and gracefully arranged on the shelves, so as to display all the newest and most beautiful shades in the most attractive manner, while the napkins and towels were twisted into all sorts of fancy shapes, and made to represent many things unthought of before, all evidencing the exquisite taste of Messrs. Will. O'Donnell and Ben. H. McEwan, who had charge of the arrangement. The notions and trimmings were handsomely displayed in the show-cases by the young ladies of the establishment, and everything was gotten up in a style unexcelled by any house in the city.

The millinery department presented the most attractions for the ladies, and the greatest variety of styles of hats and bonnets were displayed there. Everything from the lowest priced child's hat to the most expensive spring bonnet, trimmed in the most tasteful manner, was on exhibition, and the most fastidious could not help but find something becoming to her style of beauty.

A great number of persons visited the store during Thursday and yesterday and many more will go to-day, for when Messrs.
Harris & Herrmann announce an opening the people all know that something handsome is going to be on exhibition and they all want to see it.

The spring opening of Mrs. J. M. Hallnan's bonnets, hats, ribbons, leathers, etc., came off, according to announcement, Thursday, and the ladies flocked in to see the display, which was indeed a handsome one. All the latest and most fashionable shades, prominent among which was the crushed strawberry, were beautifully arranged, and the many new styles were shown in the most attractive manner. The lady who went in and saw all those pretty bonnets must indeed have been hard to please if she found nothing to suit her.

OTIS W. SNYDER.

The most successful Remedy ever discovered as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. READ PROOF BELOW.

Saved him $1,800

ADAMS, N. Y. Jan. 30, 1882.

Dr. E. J. KENDALL & Co., Gentl—Having used a good deal of your Kendall's Spavin Cure with great success, I thought I would let you know what it has done for me. Two years ago I had a speedy a colic as was ever raised in Jefferson County. When I was breaking him, he kicked over the cross bar and got fast and tore one of his hind legs all to pieces. I employed the best farriers, but they all said he was spoiled. He had a very large thoroughbred and I used two bottles of your Kendall's Spavin Cure, and it took the bunch entirely off, and he sold afterwards for $1,800 (dollar). I have used it for bone spavins and wind galls, and it has always cured completely and left the leg smooth.

It is a splendid medicine for rheumatism. I have recommended it to a good many, and they all say it does the work. I was in Witherington & Kneeland's drug store, in Adams, the other day and saw a very fine picture you sent them. I tried to buy it but could not; they said if I would write to you that you would send me one. I wish you would, and I will do you all the good I can.

Very respectfully,
E. S. LYMAN.

sprained an ankle badly; and knowing the value of the remedy for horses, tried it on himself, and it did far better than he had expected. Cured the sprain in very short order.

Yours respectfully,
